HER STORY & GOALS

After the devastating loss of her father, Ambreetta Stephens, founder & CEO of EmpowHERment, found herself lost. Even with the support of family and friends, she still needed a safe outlet to LET GO. She started a Facebook group for family and friends to share their most intimate thoughts and feelings. EmpowHERment quickly evolved into monthly workshops, community volunteering, and many life-changing stories. Today, EmpowHERment is a community organization committed to helping women rise by providing advocacy services, support groups, and effective empowerment workshops.
